Catchy Informative Title Our production and consumption of food has devasting impacts on the environment. Making cha

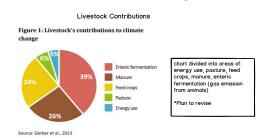

"If global trends in meat and dairy intake continue, global mean temperature rise will more than likely exceed 2°C, even with dramatic emissions reductions across

Major Contributors to Climate Change

Ð

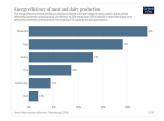

Food History of Production and Consumption

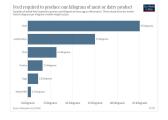

Going through food production and eating habits overtime. How things were home grow and less meat was producted and consumed Basically explaining how we have gotten to where we are now.

US Contribution

what we get out vs. what we put into meat production

Use of Resources in Meat Production

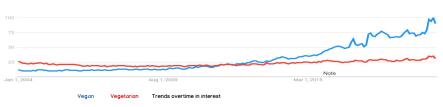

#

:

Marros other and

The People's Response!

Ease & Impact of Less Meat Intake

Our non-meat options today

Item One Item Two Item Three Impact of our plate choices

the thing of south the control that the things of the control that the con